

HAEF LIBRARY STAFF HAPPENINGS

May – November 2017

Postgraduate Studies / Certification

-“J.M. Carras’ Kindergarten librarian Virginia Nika, earned a postgraduate Magister Atrium degree in Education Sciences, with specialization in Learning Technologies and Communication, from the Open University of Cyprus.

-Librarian Eugenia Chamzai received a Certified Computer User credential for Syllabus 1.0” & “Syllabus 2.0” from E.O.P.P.E.P (National Organization for the Certification of Qualifications & Vocational Guidance).

Seminars / Conferences / Workshops

-On Monday, November 6, 2017, Alexandra Papazoglou, Director of the HAEF Libraries, gave a speech on “Information Technology in Education: Why and How” at an event organized by H.E.LI.N (The Hellenic Economic Library Network) at the Centre of Planning and Economic Research (KEPE).

-On September 8-9, Ms. Alexandra Papazoglou, together with Psychico College Elementary School librarians, Sofia Dimitriadi, Stamatina Partsinevelou and Eugenia Chamzai, attended a seminar entitled “Holistic Teaching and Learning,” organized by Psychico College Elementary School within the framework of the P.Y.P (Primary Years Programme).

-“J.M. Carras” Kindergarten librarian Virginia Nika attended a workshop entitled “Introduction to the Primary Years Programme in Early Years,” organized by the Kindergarten, within the framework of the P.Y.P., on September 6-8, 2017.

-Athens College Elementary School librarians, Kleoniki Mpistiola, Anastasia Diaggelaki and Eleni Christopoulou-Petala, attended a corresponding workshop entitled “Making the P.Y.P. happen,” organized by Athens College Elementary School on September 30, 2017.

-Athens College Elementary School librarian Eleni Petala attended a two-hour workshop entitled “My favorite book becomes a theatrical performance,” at Metaixmio Publishers’ multipurpose assembly hall, on the occasion of the book presentation of “Time for the Theater,” written by M. Mpirmpili and A. Pappou.

-Psychico College Elementary School librarian Stamatina Partsinevelou attended a workshop entitled "Picturebooks, the Arts and the Artists,” organized by Dr. Janet Evans (Independent Scholar, Literacy and Educational Consultant and former Senior Lecturer in Education), on May 27, 2017.